Award Criteria

Created in 2006, this award honors individuals in the Puget Sound region who have made significant contributions toward encouraging water conservation and who have worked diligently to develop water conservation programs, activities, education and/or policy.

Nominees are nominated by PWC members and recipients are chosen by the Partnership for Water Conservation's Board of Directors. The award is presented in October at the Annual Membership Meeting. Current members of the Board of Directors are ineligible to be nominated.

Please attach a sheet describing in 500 words or less why you feel your nominee is deserving of this award. Send your nomination materials by September 1st to:
